Fraternal and Lodge Notes

Tuesday evening, being the night of holiday, was largely an "off night" in the lodge world, several of the lodges postponing meetings which are generally scheduled for that evening of the week.

June 14 has been set apart in a proclamation of President Wilson to be observed as "Flag Day." It will be observed by Honolulu Lodge No. 616, B. P. O. E., in accordance with custom and the provisions of the laws of the grand lodge, These laws prescribe that June 14 shall be annually observed as "Flag Day" by each and every subordinate lodge. It is further provided that the ceremonies in connection with such observance shall be public. In conformity with these laws Honolulu Lodge will hold public "Flag Day" services in the lodge room Wednesday evening, June 14. The history of the flag will be patriotically HART MEEAWA; EDWARD MEE- and faithfully narrated and the Elks' AWA, and to ALL whom it may tribute to the flag will be rendered in a manner which cannot fail to stir the Whereas, a petition has been pre-pride of country that may be within the breast of every hearer.
